

Bilingualism and text transmission in medieval texts

Friday, 31st May, Utrecht University, Drift 21 (0.05)

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 9.00-9.15 | Arrival – tea/coffee |
| 9.15-9.30 | Welcome and opening statement |
| 9.30-10.15 | Alex Mullen, Why code-switch in writing? Findings from sociolinguistic research into classical and modern texts |
| 10.15-11.00 | Laura Wright, Bilingualism and text transmission in medieval texts: bilingualism in medieval England |
| 11.00-11.30 | coffee/tea |
| 11.30-12.15 | Elvira Glaser, Bilingual texts in medieval German |
| 12.15-13.00 | Alderik H. Blom, The Altalemannischen Psalmenfragmente and other Germanic Interlinearversionen of the Psalter |
| 13.00-14.30 | lunch |
| 14.30-15.15 | Nike Stam, Explaining Oengus in Style: Irish and Latin code-switching in Féilire Óengusso. A preliminary case-study. |
| 15.15-16.00 | Tom de Schepper, Medieval Irish Bilingualism: the bilingual Leabhar Breac |
| 16.00-16.15 | coffee/tea |
| 16.15-17.00 | Jacopo Bisagni, Code-switching in the Würzburg glosses? |
| 17.00-17.15 | Closing statement |

If you would like to attend, please register through registration@medievalirishbilingualism.eu as places are limited.